

Mutt Goes to School

Written by Mary Fried
Illustrations by Mason Harding

It was the first day of school.
"Good-bye, Mutt! I'm going to school," said Max.
Max waved good-bye to Mutt.

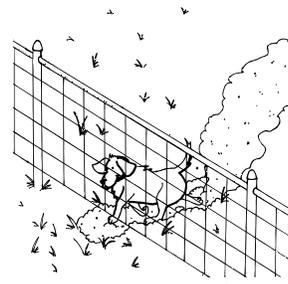

1

Mutt wanted to go to school with Max. He barked and barked.

Mutt tried to get out of the yard.
He went to the fence.
Mutt dug and dug.
Mutt pushed and squirmed.
At last he got under the fence.

Mutt ran to school as fast as he could.

2

3

Word Count 159

Reading Level

first grade, beginning second grade

GR
H

RR
13

It was lunch time. The children were running and playing on the playground.

Mutt wanted to play, too.
He thought school was great fun!

Mutt ran after the children and barked.

The children ran away screaming.

4

5

"Stop!" yelled Max.

"Stop!" yelled the teacher.

"Stop now!" yelled the principal
with a BIG voice.

Mutt got into BIG trouble.

He had to go to the principal's office
and wait for Mom.

6

7

KEEP BOOKS are a registered trademark of
The Ohio State University.

This is a facsimile of a KEEP BOOK and not intended for reproduction for the purpose of creating a book.

To purchase KEEP BOOKS please visit us at www.keepbooks.org or call 800.678.6484.

Now, when Max goes to school, Mom takes Mutt to his own special school.

Mutt is learning to obey.

8

KEEP BOOKS[®]

The Ohio State University
807 Kinnear Road
Columbus, OH 43212
(614) 292-2869
(800) 678-6484
fax: (614) 688-3452
www.keepbooks.org

Word Count 159

Reading Level

first grade, beginning second grade

GR

H

RR

13

book 5-3

ISBN 978-1-813786-10-7